

Amour Setter's international filmmaking career spans 26 years across several continents & includes working with some of the top commercial directors in our industry. Her wealth of experience enables her to focus on providing clients with excellent production service that comes from a deep understanding of the filmmaking process. With a tight reign on finances, she will insure your production comes in on budget and on time.