

Liliana Bravo Bitar, graduated in communication and film production, has collaborated for more than 15 years in International Film Festivals and Audiovisual Markets. She has been a fund and financial manager for film projects and has given consultancy and workshops on project development, pitch and distribution. He has participated as a jury in several film festivals. He currently is specialized in the representation of films to achieve their best and optimal distribution, exhibition and festival route. She has a huge background for more than 15 years in international film financing, development and distribution.